² Marianne Hirsch - La notion de “postmémoire” désigne la relation que la “génération d’après” entretient avec le traumatisme personnel, collectif et culturel subi par ceux qui l’ont précédée, avec des expériences dont elle ne “se souvient” que par le biais d’histoires, d’images et de comportements au milieu desquels elle a grandi. Mais ces expériences lui ont été transmises si profondément et avec tant d’émotion qu’elles semblent constituer une mémoire en tant que telle. Comme je la conçois, la connexion avec le passé que je définis comme postmémoire ne s’opère pas au travers d’une forme particulière de remémoration, mais d’un investissement imaginaire, d’une projection et d’une création.
